SONG FOR CHRISTMAS IN AID Of "March for Life": The Braddish Family, former parishioners of Saint Augustine's, have written, performed and professionally recorded a song which will be available on iTunes and Amazon (£0.99) in time for Advent. Christmas is Coming (Our Saviour is Born), is a song which promises to uplift people and bring hope in these strange times and despite the talk of Christmas being cancelled, Christmas IS Coming! Euan (13) plays Cello and Trombone on the track, Leo (12) Drums and Violin, Pearce (9) Viola, Vincent (8) Violin and the youngest Edith & Micah (5&3) on glockenspiels. Mum, Fiona (nee Norton) sings lead vocals and plays piano, while Dad, Mark, plays the tubular bells adding to the Christmas feel of the song. "We want the song to remind people of the real reason for the season, Jesus is our Saviour". As well as spreading some good cheer, with every download The Braddish family will be raising money for March for Life. You can follow them on twitter & facebook for up to date information and photos @BraddishFamily

"So with you: when you have done all you have been told to do, say, 'We are useless servants: we have done no more than our duty.' " Luke 17:10 Living out our baptismal calling by living in love of God and neighbour, and in the service of The Gospel, and contributing to Parish Life, whilst appropriate, and surely pleasing to God, is not really something we should boast about or something for which we can claim credit for. The Holy Spirit, and our inner desire to do God's will, should help us do what is required but not as something that has become our second nature, but as something that is core and central to human beings made in the image and likeness of God, and reborn through Water and The Holy Spirit. We should bear this in mind especially during this Season of Advent when the challenge is to "Stay Awake" as we prepare for the second coming of our Lord. He is the one in whose service we are.

THE CHRISTMAS SEASON, and THE OCTAVE OF CHRISTMAS:

Most of us are used to the fact that retailers, online and in-store, have anticipated, and promoted "Christmas" for weeks, and even months, and on facebook certainly, and possibly on other online apps, people are posting pictures of the Christmas decorations which already adorn their houses. One woman I worked with some years ago who describes herself as " a good Catholic girl!" published hers last week, and boasts she takes down her decorations on "Boxing Day" as she doesn't like "dragging Christmas out"! (You can't make these things up. Truth is often stranger than fiction. When I was a child decorations didn't go up until Christmas Eve, and came down on the Feast of The Epiphany.) However, for Catholics, and many, but not all, Christians, there is a recognised Christmas Season, and that begins on Christmas Day, and lasts until the Feast of the Baptism of The Lord, and, in the Church of England, until February 2nd, The Feast of Candlemas (as was once the case in the Catholic Church). However, within the Christmas Season there is "The Octave of Christmas" - in effect, eight days of Christmas Day. Prior to that, of course, we have a period of preparation for Christmas.

As we have to work to maintain a Covid Secure Church it is necessary to limit numbers at Christmas Masses, and people have to pre-book for all of them. However, our Bishops, with this limitation in mind, wish to highlight the fact we have a Christmas Season, and do not just celebrate on one day, but more specifically to highlight The Octave of Christmas. That is, for eight days we celebrate Christmas Day, as we do with Easter Sunday.

Our Bishop, Patrick McKinney, The Bishop of Nottingham writes:

Alongside other bishops, I would like to propose that we use the period between now and the lead up to Christmas to provide catechetical information about the Church's understanding of the celebration of the Christmas Octave.

Like Easter, the Nativity of the Lord is one of the two solemnities in the Ordinary Form of the Church's liturgical calendar which has its own Octave. As you know, the Church regards each day in an Octave as if it were the solemnity itself. So, for example, the prayers for Mass and the Liturgy of the Hours during the Christmas Octave refer to each day as if it were still Christmas Day. Despite having days within the Octave that are feasts, St Stephen, St John the Evangelist, the Holy Innocents, the Holy Family, and the concluding Solemnity of Mary the Mother of God, each of these days is, as the Roman Missal states, a 'day within the Octave of the Nativity of the Lord.' This means that, liturgically, each of the days from 25th December to the 1st January is 'Christmas Day'.

Although an additional Mass or Masses on Christmas Eve and/or on Christmas Day might enable more people to attend Mass, it would be good to remind people that they can come and celebrate the mystery of Christmas at any of the Masses during the Octave days. This would allow them, this year, to plan for a day within the Octave when they would like to come to church to celebrate their Christmas Mass."

Thus, people will be required to book for Masses from December 24th to December 27th (Thursday, Friday Saturday and Sunday), but we believe it will not be necessary to book for the weekdays from December 28th to 1st January (Monday to Friday). However, we do ask that if you cannot get to Mass on December 24th or 25th you come on one of the other days of the Octave, and every day of the Octave is a proper celebration of Christmas Day. (As with Sunday the "obligation" to attend Mass specifically on Christmas Day is currently suspended, as the Bishop also notes in his letter to the clergy.)
